• For applicants to the African Graduate Fellowship, only these items are covered by the program. The student is responsible for covering all other expenses.

¹ The university residence deposit is only refundable when the student leaves his or her room in the same condition as when he or she first moved in.

² Based on the Zamalek Dormitory rates. For other available rates, visit www.aucegypt.edu/students/housing/apply.asp. If you would like to reserve a room in the university residence, please download a housing application available at aucegypt.edu/students/housing/ and send it with your deposit as soon as possible to the student housing office or the New York Office. Space in the university residence is limited, particularly in the fall semester. Extra days spent at the university residence before or after semesters are charged at the rate of $20 per day.

³ Based on a student living in a furnished one-bedroom apartment near campus. Housing costs vary in Cairo depending on the age, condition and location of the building. Many students also choose to share apartments to reduce housing costs. Luxurious housing is also available in Cairo at a higher monthly rate. Add $30 per month for gas, water and electricity.

⁴ Based on most meals made at home with some meals eaten at Western restaurants.

⁵ For school supplies, photocopies, kitchen supplies, and one or two university sponsored trips.
