INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

November 2024 – Entrepreneurial Ecosystems in Africa Workshop – Utrecht University (Utrecht, Netherlands): I was invited as a discussant on the paper titled “The African Entrepreneurial Ecosystem Index” from Phumlani Nkontwana (Stellenbosch University), Erik Stam (Utrecht University), Robert McDonald (Utrecht University), Rafiki Murenzi (Stellenbosch University), Kwabena Aboah Addo (Utrecht University) & Blaise Bayuo (Innovation for Policy Foundation).
May 2024 – Bridge Africa Summit – Mohammed VI Polytechnique University (UM6P) (Benguerir, Morocco): I was invited to speak on the panel of “Inspiring a New Generation of Leaders” at the inaugural Bridge Africa Summit. The summit gathered over 140 leaders from 25 countries in Africa to discuss & collaborate on innovative practices that enhance social and economic development.

January 2024 – Global Shapers Davos 50 Delegation at the World Economic Forum Annual Summit (Davos, Switzerland): I was invited to attend and speak at the World Economic Forum Annual Meeting, which convened 3000 leaders, more than 160 heads of state and governments, and a number of CEOs, CxOs and world leaders. Along with the Schwab Foundation for Social Entrepreneurship Social Innovators and The Forum of Young Global Leaders, me and forty nine others were the "Davos 50" (selected from the 13,000 strong Global Shapers Community in 154 countries and 507 hubs) that represented the "youth voice" at Davos.

December 2023 –Atlantic Dialogues – Policy Center for the New South (Marrakech, Morocco): Selected for Atlantic Dialogues Emerging Leaders Program which brings together 40 young leaders (from a 1400+ applicant pool), aged 25 to 35, from around the Atlantic basin and Africa, who have demonstrated leadership and initiative in their fields and who aim to shape the regional and global agenda in politics, finance, business, civil society, academia and the media. These rising leaders have displayed leadership capabilities, and have a strong sense of commitment to social, economic, and development issues facing their communities in particular and the world in general.

October 2023 –Shape MENA - World Economic Forum (Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates): I was nominated to be a panelist on the opening session regarding the “Pillars of Sustainability”. This year’s forum focused on the economic, environmental and social aspects of sustainability, emphasizing the significant role of youth in driving sustainability in their communities. Activities around the three-day event included panel discussions, interactive workshops and visits to various cultural sites in Abu Dhabi. Under the theme Shaping a Sustainable Arabia, Shape MENA convened more than 150 international youth leaders, World Economic Forum delegates, and senior executives from various government entities and private companies.

September 2023 – The University on Youth & Development (UYD) - Council of Europe (Mollina, Spain): As a Young Expert of the African Union - European Union Youth Cooperation Hub, I represented the Business Cluster to share innovative youth-led solutions around some of the most pressing issues on peace and climate change within the context of the Sustainable Development Goals. The UYD represents an international hub for meetings, youth advocacy and exchange of good practices. It gathers, for one week, hundreds of young people, youth workers, decision makers, experts from the field and institutional representatives, providing them all with a space to meet, debate, build their capacities and cooperate on youth policy issues.

June 2023 – Global Shapers Annual Summit - World Economic Forum (Geneva, Switzerland): As the curator of the Cairo Hub, I was nominated among 500 leaders to represent the community of 15,000 Global Shapers in the Annual Summit in Geneva Switzerland. I was nominated by the MENA community manager to speak at the closing session on leadership. The 2023 Global Shapers Annual Summit focused on accelerating values-based leadership to ignite social change. Experts from the community, supporters and partners shared best practices and solutions to address a range of leadership and global issues – including fighting climate change, accelerating reskilling and innovating responsibly.

November 2022 – The African University on Youth & Development (AUyD) - Council of Europe (Mindelo, Cape Verde): As a Young Expert of the African Union - European Union Youth Cooperation Hub, I represented the Business Cluster to share innovative youth-led solutions from the hub on entrepreneurship and climate within the context of the Sustainable Development Goals. The AUyD gathered, for one week, hundreds of young people, youth workers, decision makers, experts from the field and institutional representatives, to cooperate on the theme defined by the Network on Youth and Global Citizenship in “Building effective, accountable, and inclusive institutions”.

February 2022 – Moderator at the 6th European Union – African Union Summit (Brussels, Belgium): as part of the Africa-Europe week which brings together heads of state from Africa and Europe, I moderated a panel on the future of youth inclusion and the transition of the AU-EU Youth cooperation from a hub to a lab. The panel was moderated in French and included approximately 40 youth from Africa & Europe.

November to December 2018 – Project Director - UNODC Africa (Nairobi, Kenya): I was hired as project director to organize the first ever national youth workshop on good governance, anti-corruption & integrity. The national workshop brought together over 200 young Kenyan leaders from across all 8 provinces in the country.

November 2021 – Delegate at the 2nd International Forum on the Social Solidarity Economy (Tunis, Tunisia): among the African youth leaders selected to discuss the ideas and projects related to the circular economy. I was also visiting the entrepreneurs and incubators involved in the AU-EU youth hub projects.
