EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Professor University of the Arts (2016)

Taught one course per semester, History of Costumes and Décor.

Assistant Professor Temple University (2006 – 2015)

Faculty member in the Theater Department and Head of the Lighting Design Program.

Taught four courses per semester on both the graduate MFA and undergraduate BA level.

Created classes in Sound Design, Stage Management, Internships, Drafting (Hand, CAD, 2D and 3D rendering), and Introduction to Lighting. Revised classes in Introduction to Design, graduate Lighting Design and Visual History.

Developed new technologies to improve the designers' process and economic viability, specifically a new use of an industry standard CAD program that allows image rendering of light to use as a communication tool.

Head of the Design area from 2010 to 2012 involved coordinating curricular and production communication from within the Design Area to and from the upper administration, arranging graduate student registration, and taking the first steps to a revised undergraduate and graduate curriculum.

Served on the Executive, Alumni, Fundraising, Production, and Scholarship committees. Recruited students for the undergraduate program, and for the graduate level through the URTA process.

Mentored all lighting and sound designers for Temple productions.

Designed one or two mainstage productions a year.

Production Director from 2006 to 2008 involved overall supervision of the design and production process, and touring of the Temple Production "In Conflict" to the KCACTF in Pittsburgh, the Long Warf Theater in New Haven Connecticut, and the Edinburgh Fringe Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Adjunct Professor Temple University (2004 – 2006)

Taught one course per semester, Lighting Design I,II, III

Guest Lecturer Carnegie Mellon University (1998-2001)

Taught workshops and master classes that coordinated with designing for the Pittsburgh Opera.

Adjunct Professor Drexel University (1992 - 1994)

Taught one course per year, Lighting for the Theater

Professional Designer - theater and film 1992- Present
